In 13 Going On 30, an unhappy 13-year-old girl wishes to be 30 years old. "Magic dust" falls on her head, and in the next scene she wakes up as a 30-year-old version of herself, and the setting is 17 years later, in which: she is a top executive of her childhood favorite magazine; her best friend is the cruel, popular girl of her childhood; she has lost touch with her childhood best friend; and she has a poor relationship with her parents. Eventually, "magic dust" again falls on her, and she becomes 13 again, at which point she actively attempts to change her life.
